CHAMBERS' COMPLAINTS PROCEDURE 2026

1. Mercantile Barristers prides itself on the excellence of its service. If at any time you have any concerns about the quality of the services of our barristers or members of staff you are invited to let us know as soon as possible.
2. In line with our friendly and open approach, in the first instance we would always encourage you to discuss any day-to-day concerns about the services of our barristers directly with them. Any such concerns can also always be raised with our clerking team.
3. Any concerns about members of staff should be raised with the Head of Chambers.
4. We would very much hope that the matter can be resolved at this point and that you will be satisfied with the outcome.
5. However, if you feel that the concern or matter you have raised has not been dealt with to your satisfaction, then you may wish to make a formal complaint. We set out the steps in our formal complaint's procedure below.
6. Rest assured that any complaints made will be taken seriously and handled with care and will not disadvantage your case or matter. We will investigate and handle complaints in a fair and consistent manner, diligently and impartially, and seek to respond and resolve your complaint promptly.
7. Please note that the Legal Ombudsman, the independent complaints body for service complaints about lawyers, has time limits in which a complaint must be raised with them. From 1 April 2023, the time limits are:

- (a) The complainant must refer the complaint to the Legal Ombudsman no later than one year from the act/omission, or one year from when the complainant should reasonably have known there was cause for complaint.
 - (b) The complainant must also refer the complaint to the Legal Ombudsman within six months of the complaint receiving a final response from their lawyer, if that response complies with the requirements in rule 4.4 of the Scheme Rules (which requires the response to include prominently an explanation that the Legal Ombudsman was available if the complainant remained dissatisfied, and the provision of full contact details for the Ombudsman and a warning that the complaint must be referred to them within six months).
8. Chambers must have regard to that timeframe when deciding whether they are able to investigate your complaint. Chambers will not therefore usually deal with complaints that fall outside of the Legal Ombudsman's time limits. The Ombudsman can extend the time limit in exceptional circumstances.
 9. The Ombudsman will also only deal with complaints from consumers. This means that only complaints from the barrister's client are within their jurisdiction. Non-clients who do not fall within the jurisdiction of the Ombudsman who are not satisfied with the outcome of the Chambers' investigation should contact the BSB rather than the Legal Ombudsman.
 10. It should be noted that it may not always be possible to investigate a complaint brought by a non-client. This is because the ability of chambers to satisfactorily investigate and resolve such matters is limited and complaints of this nature are often better suited to the disciplinary processes maintained by the BSB. Therefore, chambers will make an initial assessment of the complaint and if they feel that the issues raised cannot be satisfactorily resolved through the chambers complaints process they will refer you to the BSB.

Complaints Made by Telephone

11. You may wish to make a complaint in writing and, if so, please follow the procedure in paragraph 15 below. If you would like to make your complaint in other ways or formats, or accessible options, please do not hesitate to contact us so that we can best accommodate your needs.
12. However, if you would rather speak initially on the telephone, video call, or other format that suits your preference and information needs, about your complaint, then please engage Chambers Administrator or (if the complaint is about a member of staff) the Head of Chambers – Mr. Samuel Okoronkwo Sr. If the complaint is about the Head of Chambers please contact Chambers Administrator. The person you contact will make a note of the details of your complaint and what you would like to have done about it. They will discuss your concerns with you and aim to resolve them. If the matter is resolved they will record the outcome, check that you are satisfied with the outcome and record that you are satisfied. You may also wish to record the outcome of the telephone discussion in writing.
13. If your complaint is not resolved on the telephone, you will be invited to write to us about it so it can be investigated formally. At this stage, we will also check if you would like to engage with us on accessible formats, to meet your specific information and communication needs. We will discuss and agree with you the best way and format for us to engage and communicate together. We will advise you on the best way to set out your concerns and complaint for the next formal investigation stage, depending on your needs and preferences.

Formal Complaint's Procedure

14. For complaints made in writing, please email them to complaints@mercantilebarristers.com and give the following details:
 - (a) Your name and address;
 - (b) Which member(s) of chambers you are complaining about;
 - (c) The detail of the complaint; and

- (d) What you would like done about it.
15. Please address your letter/correspondence to the Chambers Administrator. We will, where possible, acknowledge receipt of your complaint within two days, by email and provide you with details of how your complaint will be dealt with.
16. For complaints made in other accessible formats, we will discuss and advise you on the best way to set out your concerns, tailored to your needs, and how to provide the information above in paragraph 15.
17. Our chambers has a panel headed by the Head of Chambers and made up of Chambers Administrator and a senior member of staff, which considers any written and formal complaint. Within 14 days of your letter/formal complaint being received the head of the panel (or their deputy in their absence) will appoint a member of the panel to investigate it. If your complaint is against the head of the panel, the next most senior member of the panel will investigate it. In any case, the person appointed will be someone other than the person you are complaining about.
18. The person appointed to investigate will write to you as soon as possible to let you know they have been appointed and that they will reply to your complaint within 14 days. If they find later that they are not going to be able to reply within 14 days they will set a new date for their reply and inform you. In any event, we will keep you informed and provide regular updates on progress of the complaint investigation. Their reply will set out:
- (a) The nature and scope of their investigation;
 - (b) Their conclusion on each complaint and the basis for their conclusion; and
 - (c) If they find that you are justified in your complaint, their proposals for resolving the complaint.
19. Please note that there may be circumstances where the investigator feels that they are unable to carry out the investigation at that time; for example, if the complainant has established an intent to commence proceedings against a barrister in the same matter or where a complaint relates to ongoing litigation between the complainant and barrister. If that is the case, the investigator will inform you of this.

Confidentiality

20. All conversations and documents relating to the complaint will be treated as confidential and will be disclosed only to the extent that is necessary. Disclosure will be to the Head of Chambers, a member of our clerking team and our chambers administrator and will include anyone else we consider necessary to involve in the complaint and its investigation. Such people will include the barrister member or staff member about whom you have complained. If such a complaint is made, we will assume that you are authorising those investigating the complaint to view all the papers or other correspondence relevant to the matter.

Our policy

21. As part of our commitment to client care we will make a written record of any formal complaint and retain all documents and correspondence generated by the complaint for a period of six years. Our clerking and administration team inspects an anonymised record regularly with a view to improving services. Complaints data is provided to the Bar Standards Board annually, on an anonymous basis, which will only provide information about what the complaint was about, and the outcomes.

Complaints to the Legal Ombudsman

22. We hope that you will use our procedure. However, if you are unhappy with the outcome of our investigation and you fall within their jurisdiction you may take up your complaint with the Legal Ombudsman, the independent complaints body for complaints about lawyers, at the conclusion of our consideration of your complaint. The Ombudsman is not able to consider your complaint until it has first been investigated by chambers, or if the complaint has not been resolved to your satisfaction within 8 weeks of making your complaint. For the avoidance of doubt, even if your complaint has not been resolved within eight weeks of being made and remains ongoing, you may still refer the matter to the Legal Ombudsman. Please note the timeframe for referral of complaints to the Ombudsman as set out at paragraph 2 above. Those clients who are able to complain to the Legal Ombudsman are as follows:

- a) Individuals;*
- b) Businesses or enterprises that are micro-enterprises within the meaning of Article 1 and Article 2(1) and (3) of the Annex to Commission Recommendation 2003/361/EC (broadly businesses or enterprises with fewer than 10 employees and turnover or assets not exceeding €2 million);*
- c) Charities with an annual income net of tax of less than £1 million;*
- d) Clubs, associations or organisations, the affairs of which are managed by its members or a committee of its members, with an annual income net of tax of less than £1 million;*
- e) Trustees of trusts with an asset value of less than £1 million; and*
- f) Personal representatives or beneficiaries of the estates of persons who, before they died, had not referred the complaint to the Legal Ombudsman.*

If you are unhappy with the outcome of the investigation, alternative complaints bodies as approved by the Chartered Trading Standards Institute

(<https://www.tradingstandards.uk/consumer-help/adr-approved-bodies/>) also exist which are competent to deal with complaints about legal services, should you and the barrister both wish to use such a scheme. If you wish to use your chosen ADR provider, please contact us to discuss this, including time limits for contacting your chosen ADR. Please also note that if mediation is used, neither you nor the barrister is required to accept the proposed resolution. If mediation does not resolve the complaint, you may still make a complaint to the Legal Ombudsman (provided you fall within their jurisdiction and you do so within the time limit)

23. If you are not the barrister's client and are unhappy with the outcome of our investigation then please contact the Bar Standards Board at:
